

League of American Orchestras
May 27, 2015

Boards on Fire!

- 8:00 – 8:30 Welcome, introductions, what’s up with your board?
- 8:30 – 9:00 Clarifying expectations
- 9:00 – 9:30 Articulating impact
- 9:30 – 9:45 Break
- 9:45 – 10:15 Creating meetings that produce strong leadership
- 10:15–10:45 Setting strategic priorities
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-12:00 Helping leaders raise money joyfully
- 12:00-12:30 Setting intentions for changing our behavior

What I want to remember or act on about clear expectations:

What I want to remember or act on about clear purpose:

What I want to remember or act on about using their time well at meetings:

What I want to remember or act on about having goals drive board behavior:

What I want to remember or act on about focusing their fundraising energy:

Susan Howlett, Consultant and Author of Boards on Fire
www.susanhowlett.com

Using Mission and Goals to Drive Behavior

Simon Sinek: Start with Why

What's Our So What?

My So-That Chain

Elements of a Mission Statement

Ingredients of a Great Board Meeting

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)
- 5)
- 6)

Three Modes Boards Operate In (Governance as Leadership)

Using Strategic Priorities to Drive Behavior

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

