Artistic Administrators
Constituency Meetings
Constituency Liaison: Mi Ryung Song
msong@americanorchestras.org

Constituency Meetings take place in the Baltimore Marriott Waterfront unless otherwise indicated.

Thursday, June 9

4:15pm – 5:30pm
Welcome and Introductions
Dover A
Roundtable: Highs and Lows
3rd Fl.

Although what works for some may not work for all, this is your chance to humblebrag about your biggest success from the past year or two as well as cautionary tales of ideas best left on paper. Be prepared to share and listen in this closed session for artistic administrators only.

Friday, June 10

2:15pm – 3:45pm
Beyond the Core Classics
Dover A
Mini festivals, late night series, and non/classical hybrid concerts stretch our need for creative programming and guest artists and conductors who are adept with non-traditional presentations. Be prepared to share and takeaway key elements of your most successful projects and develop critical questions that need to be addressed going into your current and future projects.

Moderator: Meg Sippey, acting artistic administrator, Baltimore Symphony Orchestra

3:45pm – 4:00pm

Teaming up to Build New Audiences
Have you ever underestimated the complexity of semi-staged productions or concerts with visuals in the pursuit of new audiences? Hear about the pros and cons of collaborating with stage directors and artistic partners in your community to produce concerts designed to reach beyond your current orbit of concert-goers. Baltimore Symphony Orchestra music director, Marin Alsop, will lead the discussion for the first half hour.
Marin Alsop, music director, Baltimore Symphony Orchestra; Meg Sippey, acting artistic administrator, Baltimore Symphony Orchestra

This is a joint session with conductors.

Saturday, June 11

9:00am-9:45am
Meyerhoff Symphony Hall Lobby

Coffee Conversation with Marin Alsop
Casual conversation with Baltimore Symphony Orchestra’s Music Director, Marin Alsop, about the diversity on the podium and other timely topics. Bus transportation from the hotel to be provided beginning at 8:30am and looped throughout the morning.

10:00am-12:30pm
Meyerhoff Symphony Hall

Conducting Masterclass with Marin Alsop
Conducting Masterclass with Marin Alsop and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra on Appalachian Spring and Brahms Symphonies No. 2 and 3 with podium conductors: Valentina Peleggi, Ruth Rheinhardt, Jacomo Bairos, Paul Ghun Kim, David Jacobs.
