League of American Orchestras
2018 National Conference

Trustees Constituency Agenda
Constituency Liaison: John-Morgan Bush
jbush@americanorchestras.org

All meetings take place in the Palmer House Hilton Hotel unless otherwise indicated.

Wednesday, June 13
2:30pm-3:45pm
Honore Ballroom
Lobby Level

Donor Development and The Governing Members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Association as a Model

Tim Duffy, CSOA trustee and immediate past chair of the Governing Members of the CSOA

The discussion will examine how the CSOA utilizes its Governing Members program create an effective donor pipeline that:

- Engages more patrons to become financial supporters.
- Identifies and recruit future board members.
- Leverages the social and professional networks of patrons.
- Expands, engages, and energizes donors.

Friday, June 15
11:00am-12:15pm
Honore Ballroom
Lobby Level

Musicians + Trustees: Exploring the Shared Benefits of Musician Involvement in Governance

This session will explore how integrating musicians into the organizational structure of orchestra boards, encouraging them to participate on board committees, strategic planning, and other governance activities is a fantastic way to engage musicians and trustees alike in shared perspectives and contribute to building a healthy organizational culture.

Facilitator: James Boyd, CEO, Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra, Scott Faulkner, bassist Reno Philharmonic, and former executive director of the Reno Chamber Orchestra.

Trustee constituency meetings generously sponsored by Arts Consulting Group, Inc.

Name badges for this event generously provided by TALASKE l Sound Thinking.
Additional Session of Interest:

Thursday, June 14

8:45am-10:00am
State Ballroom
Fourth Floor

All Aboard: Tactics for Building and Sustaining a Diverse Board

Diversity at the board level is fundamental to the health and success of an inclusive arts organization. Yet, for many orchestras, it remains an elusive goal. Join us to hear directly from board members representing a variety of backgrounds about the identification, cultivation, and retention strategies that have been resonant in engaging and supporting them as board members. Explore the influence of organizational culture and messaging. And, leave better equipped to engage and center the voices of individuals from across the communities you serve in the vital work of governance.

Speakers: Althea Alviar Lee, senior director of organizational effectiveness, CME Group; Pratichi Shah, president and CEO, Flourish Talent Management Solutions; Henry Turner, board chair, Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestras; Sheila Williams, board member, The Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra

This session is generously sponsored by
An Evening with Jorge Calandrelli, Legendary Arranger To the Stars.

Made possible by generous grants from
The Joyce Foundation and The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.