

Tia Allen: Job Description

Diverse Concert Orchestra

Changing the face of the modern orchestra through diversity in the arts. Inclusion and diversity vertically integrated into all facets of our organization including the performing artists, repertoire programmed, educational outreach, and community audience engagement.

About Viola chair opportunities

- collaborative repertoire programming workshops
- mentoring young musicians in the community
- community engagement through chamber performance

Your background

- You have a passion for community engagement
- You have experience working with youth in the arts
- You believe that diversity in music makes creates growth and opportunity