Millennium Park
Chicago, IL

Due to the current pandemic disruption, the 2021 season of the Grant Park Music Festival is still in flux. Please visit gpmf.org for the most up-to-date information.

Ravinia Festival
Highland Park, IL
July-September

The Ravinia Festival plans to reopen in July for the 2021 summer season, presenting our signature mix of genres: classical, popular, and chamber music. The health of our audiences, artists, community, and staff is our priority, and our decisions have been supported by guidance from state and local health officials as well as consultation with Northwestern Medicine. All performances will take place outside in our open-air Pavilion, with reserved-in-advance, distanced seating in the Pavilion, on the Lawn, and al fresco at our dining spaces. There will be reduced audience capacity and reduced numbers of artists onstage to maintain a healthy environment for all. We are delighted that the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will return in July to its summer home here at Ravinia for its annual six-week summer residency. Our anticipation is doubled with Marin Alsop set to lead seven concerts with the orchestra in her first season as our chief conductor and curator. Our full 2021 lineup will be announced in late April along with attendance protocols.

MAINE

Monteux School and Music Festival
Hancock, ME
June 13 to July 25

Online and In-Person Attendance

Founded as a school for conductors in 1943 by internationally renowned conductor Pierre Monteux, it's one of the finest summer training programs and festivals of its kind. Based on Monteux's belief that conductors should play in the orchestra while observing the lessons of their colleagues, thus learning from both sides of the podium, the school offers an intensive six-week program that includes a series of symphonic, chamber, and children's concerts in a creative, supportive environment.
