

Founded in 1942, the League of American Orchestras champions the vitality of music and the orchestral experience, supports the orchestra community, and leads change boldly. Join the League to become an orchestra insider and make personal connections in this national network of 1,600 organizations and individuals.

Student membership is best suited for those currently enrolled in college (including both undergraduate and advanced degree programs) and is also open to those who recently graduated.

Student Membership - FREE!

Receive all the benefits of Individual Membership at a discounted price, including access to:

- Free early bird registration* for the League's National Conference in June.
- Member savings on all events, including webinars and seminars.
- Online programming throughout the year on topics specially tailored to students.
- League360 online member forums, including a group just for student members.
- Bi-weekly roundup of orchestra news from Symphony.
- Part of a League member organization? Upgrade your inherited benefits with a 50% discount on a Professional Membership.

*Free registration is limited and first-come, first-served. After we run out, students can attend at a deeply discounted rate.

Student Professional Membership - $80

If you are interested in developing your career in the orchestra field, Student Professional Membership is designed for you. You will receive all of the benefits of Student Membership plus:

- Access to the League's Job Listings website with listings and notifications of available positions. You can post your resume where it is available to member orchestras looking for new employees.
- A copy of the annual print edition of Symphony magazine.

americanorchestras.org/students

