

Rebecca Cain

Pronouns: She/Her

Vice President of Operations

Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra

Rebecca Cain joined the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra as Vice President of Orchestra Operations in fall 2022, becoming VP of Operations in 2024. Originally from a three stoplight town in North Carolina, Rebecca grew up in a family of musicians, so it was no surprise when she became a musician herself. Rebecca began her career as the second bassoonist in the Tucson Symphony Orchestra after receiving dual degrees from Oberlin College and Conservatory and an MM from Arizona State University. While at the TSO, Rebecca landed a job as their part-time personnel manager and discovered that she loved working off stage more than she enjoyed playing on stage.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh Symphony staff, Rebecca held a variety of roles at orchestra around the country, including Vice President of Operations at the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Director of Production at the Louisiana Philharmonic in New Orleans, and numerous roles at the Tucson Symphony Orchestra.

When not spending time in and around Heinz Hall, Rebecca reads continuously, runs almost daily, and knits occasionally.
