

Jumpstart Your Career with FREE Student Membership and Leadership Opportunities!

Photos of students at the 2023 League National Conference by Jason Cohn.

The League of American Orchestras champions the vitality of music and the orchestral experience, supports the orchestra community, and leads change boldly. Join to:

- Enjoy member savings on all League events, including our National Conference
- Participate in free online student programming and member forum
- Receive orchestra news
- Grow your professional network
- And much more!

For even deeper engagement with the orchestra field, consider applying to the Student Leadership Council.

Learn more at americanorchestras.org/students

Student membership is best suited for those who are currently enrolled in high school or college (including both undergraduate and advanced degree programs) and is also open to recent graduates.