

Evin Blomberg

Musician

Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra

Evin Blomberg is a violinist and dedicated arts advocate committed to transforming the future of classical music and the communities it touches. She joined the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and Pops as a violinist in 2019, and since then her involvement has grown to encompass additional roles offstage. Her work led to the creation of the Musicians in Schools Coordinator position, which she now holds, and she also serves as a Musician Representative on the Board of Directors after being elected by her colleagues.

In 2022, Evin founded Soli Music Society, a mission-driven venture focused on impacting the lives of others by bringing classical music experiences into the community. Her efforts to increase the accessibility of the arts and introduce new listeners to classical music have received attention across the region. Evin was the winner of the 2024 Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce Next Generation Leadership Awards in the Arts, Entertainment and Hospitality category, and in 2023 Evin was a Finalist for the Nancy and David Wolf Holocaust and Humanity Center Upstander Awards. In addition, she received a Gold President's Volunteer Service Award in 2023.

Evin earned her Bachelor of Music and Artist Diploma degrees from The Colburn School Conservatory of Music in Los Angeles, and her Master of Music degree from the Manhattan School of Music in New York. In addition, Evin completed the Leadership and Management Certificate Program through The Wharton School Online and the Board and Equity Leader Certificate Program through the YWCA Rising Star Equity Leadership Program.
