

Lindsey Nova

Executive Director

Three Rivers Young Peoples Orchestras

Lindsey Nova became executive director of Three Rivers Young Peoples Orchestras at the start of the 2011-12 season. During her tenure, TRYPO has dramatically expanded its program offerings (from two to seven), tripled the number of students it serves annually, and created numerous new community partnerships, resulting in a thriving and fiscally sound organization that is truly making a difference in the lives of Pittsburgh's musically talented youth.

Ms. Nova has a Bachelor of Music Performance in French Horn from the Eastman School of Music, where she also received the prestigious Performer's Certificate, and a Bachelor of Arts in French from the University of Rochester. After graduating from Eastman, she spent a year as a guest lecturer at the Université de Rennes II in Rennes, France before earning a Master of Music Performance in French Horn from the University of Utah. Previous positions include Manager of Artistic Administration at the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra as well as Director of Operations for Utah Symphony | Utah Opera.

Ms. Nova is Chair of the Youth Orchestra Division of the League of American Orchestras and an ex-officio member of the League's Board of Directors. Previous volunteer service includes membership on the Arts Advisory Council of the Pittsburgh Public Schools and on the New Leadership Board of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, as well as on the boards of the Pittsburgh Jazz Orchestra and the Pittsburgh Youth Chorus. She is proud to have participated in Leadership Pittsburgh XXXIV.
