

Using Technology to Streamline Effort

The Volunteer Council

81st National League of American Orchestras Conference
Baltimore, MD

Contact lists were in notebooks compiled from Library, School or Symphony resources. Lots of Phone Calls!

The next 40 years included
using spreadsheets,
Newspapers and more phone calls using phone book
resources at Libraries

Now almost NO PAPER!
Applications made online
through the Richmond Symphony.

- Creates a data base on student information and tracking.
- Email communication easily completed

Payments made online through RSL – easy to pull and share reports.

Using Technology to Streamline Effort

Richmond Symphony League 55th Concerto Competition Who's Attending

Date and Time

Saturday, January 04, 2025, 8:00 AM until 5:00 PM

Location

W.E. Singleton Center for the Performing Arts, Virginia Commonwealth University
922 Park Ave
Richmond, VA 23220
USA

People In My Registration (Yourself) (Any Non-Member)

First Name

Last Name

Email

Mobile Phone

< Back Cancel Next >

Richmond Symphony League website for registrations

RSL website

Richmond Symphony League's 55th Annual Student Concerto Competition

Since 1969, the Richmond Symphony League has hosted this student concerto competition to encourage and recognize young musicians from Virginia. The first-prize winner will receive a cash award and be considered for an invitation to perform with the Richmond Symphony during the 2024–25 season. The competition is open to classically-trained instrumental music students from Virginia who have not graduated from high school who play woodwind, brass, string, piano, and percussion instruments.

COMPETITION - Students who are accepted to participate will compete in-person on Jan. 4, 2025.

AWARD - Grand Prize Winner will receive $750 and be considered for an invitation to perform with the Richmond Symphony during the 2025–26 season. Runner-up Prize Winner will receive $500 and be considered for an invitation to perform for a Richmond Symphony League event.

Entries for this competition are now open! By clicking on the following link, you will be directed to the Richmond Symphony website and start the registration process. Once finished, you will be directed back to Richmond Symphony League to complete the payment registration.

Registration Link - RSL Concerto Competition Registration

Registration - Payment Only Link - Richmond Symphony League 55th Concerto Competition - 1/4/2025

Richmond Symphony League's 55th Annual Student Concerto Competition

Entries for the 2025–26 competition are now closed.

Since 1969, the Richmond Symphony League has hosted this student concerto competition to encourage and recognize young musicians from Virginia. The first-prize winner will receive a cash award and be considered for an invitation to perform with the Richmond Symphony during the 2025–26 season. The competition is open to classically-trained instrumental music students from Virginia who have not graduated from high school who play woodwind, brass, string, piano, and percussion instruments.

Using Technology to Streamline Effort

Online data base on information and storage – ease of uploading photos from cameras and iPhones; ease of using Social Media without having to upload additional data; ease of creating Press Releases to the Schools and Newspapers without importing additional photos or data!